

The Last 24

Everything that happened in business & markets

on Friday, 17 July 2026

Flip through to read more →

● BUSINESS & MARKETS

Trade Setup for July 16: Nifty Battles 24,200 Resistance in Range-Bound Market

Markets head into July 16 with the Nifty navigating a range-bound phase, facing key resistance at 24,200 and a

● BUSINESS & MARKETS ● BREAKING

India's Current Account Slips to $2 Billion Deficit in May as Trade Gap Widens

India recorded a current account deficit of $2 billion in May as the gap between imports and exports widened, according to

● BUSINESS & MARKETS ● BREAKING

JPMorgan Edges Closer to Historic $1 Trillion Market Value Milestone

JPMorgan Chase is moving closer to becoming the first bank in history to reach a market capitalisation of $1 trillion,

via The Economic Times ✓

● BUSINESS & MARKETS ● BREAKING

India-UK Trade Deal Takes Effect: What Gets Cheaper and Which Sectors Gain

The India-UK free trade agreement has officially kicked in, marking one of India's most significant bilateral trade pacts in via Reuters ✓

● BUSINESS & MARKETS

India Emerges as Strategic AI Transformation Market for Global IT Firms

India is increasingly being seen as a strategic market for artificial intelligence transformation by global IT companies,

via The New Indian Express ✓

The Last 24

The full brief, every day:

thelast24.in

Everything that mattered in India, in five minutes.

