

The Last 24

Everything that happened in technology

on Friday, 17 July 2026

Flip through to read more →

TECHNOLOGY

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

Indian AI startup Emergent joins unicorn club after raising $130 million at $1.5 billion valuation

Emergent, an Indian artificial intelligence startup, has become a unicorn after closing a $130 million funding round that

● TECHNOLOGY

India and EU back diverse supply chains and deep-tech startup ties after technology talks

India and the European Union have jointly endorsed diversified supply chains and pledged deeper cooperation on

● TECHNOLOGY

A portrait of Kiran Mazumdar Shaw, founder of Biocon, smiling and resting her chin on her hand. She is wearing a light-colored blazer over a patterned top and large hoop earrings.

Kiran Mazumdar Shaw: India struggles to create globally disruptive innovation

Biocon founder and prominent industrialist Kiran Mazumdar Shaw has argued that India faces a structural challenge in

● TECHNOLOGY

Women founders say AI, conviction and fearlessness will power India's next startup wave

Indian women startup founders have said that artificial intelligence, strong conviction, and a fearless approach to

● TECHNOLOGY ● BREAKING

India bets ₹1.27 lakh crore on Semicon Mission 2.0 to break China's grip on chip manufacturing

The Union Cabinet has approved ₹1.27 lakh crore for India's Semicon Mission 2.0, a massive push to build domestic

The Last 24

The full brief, every day:

thelast24.in

Everything that mattered in India, in five minutes.

