

The Last 24

Everything that happened in the world

on Friday, 17 July 2026

Flip through to read more →

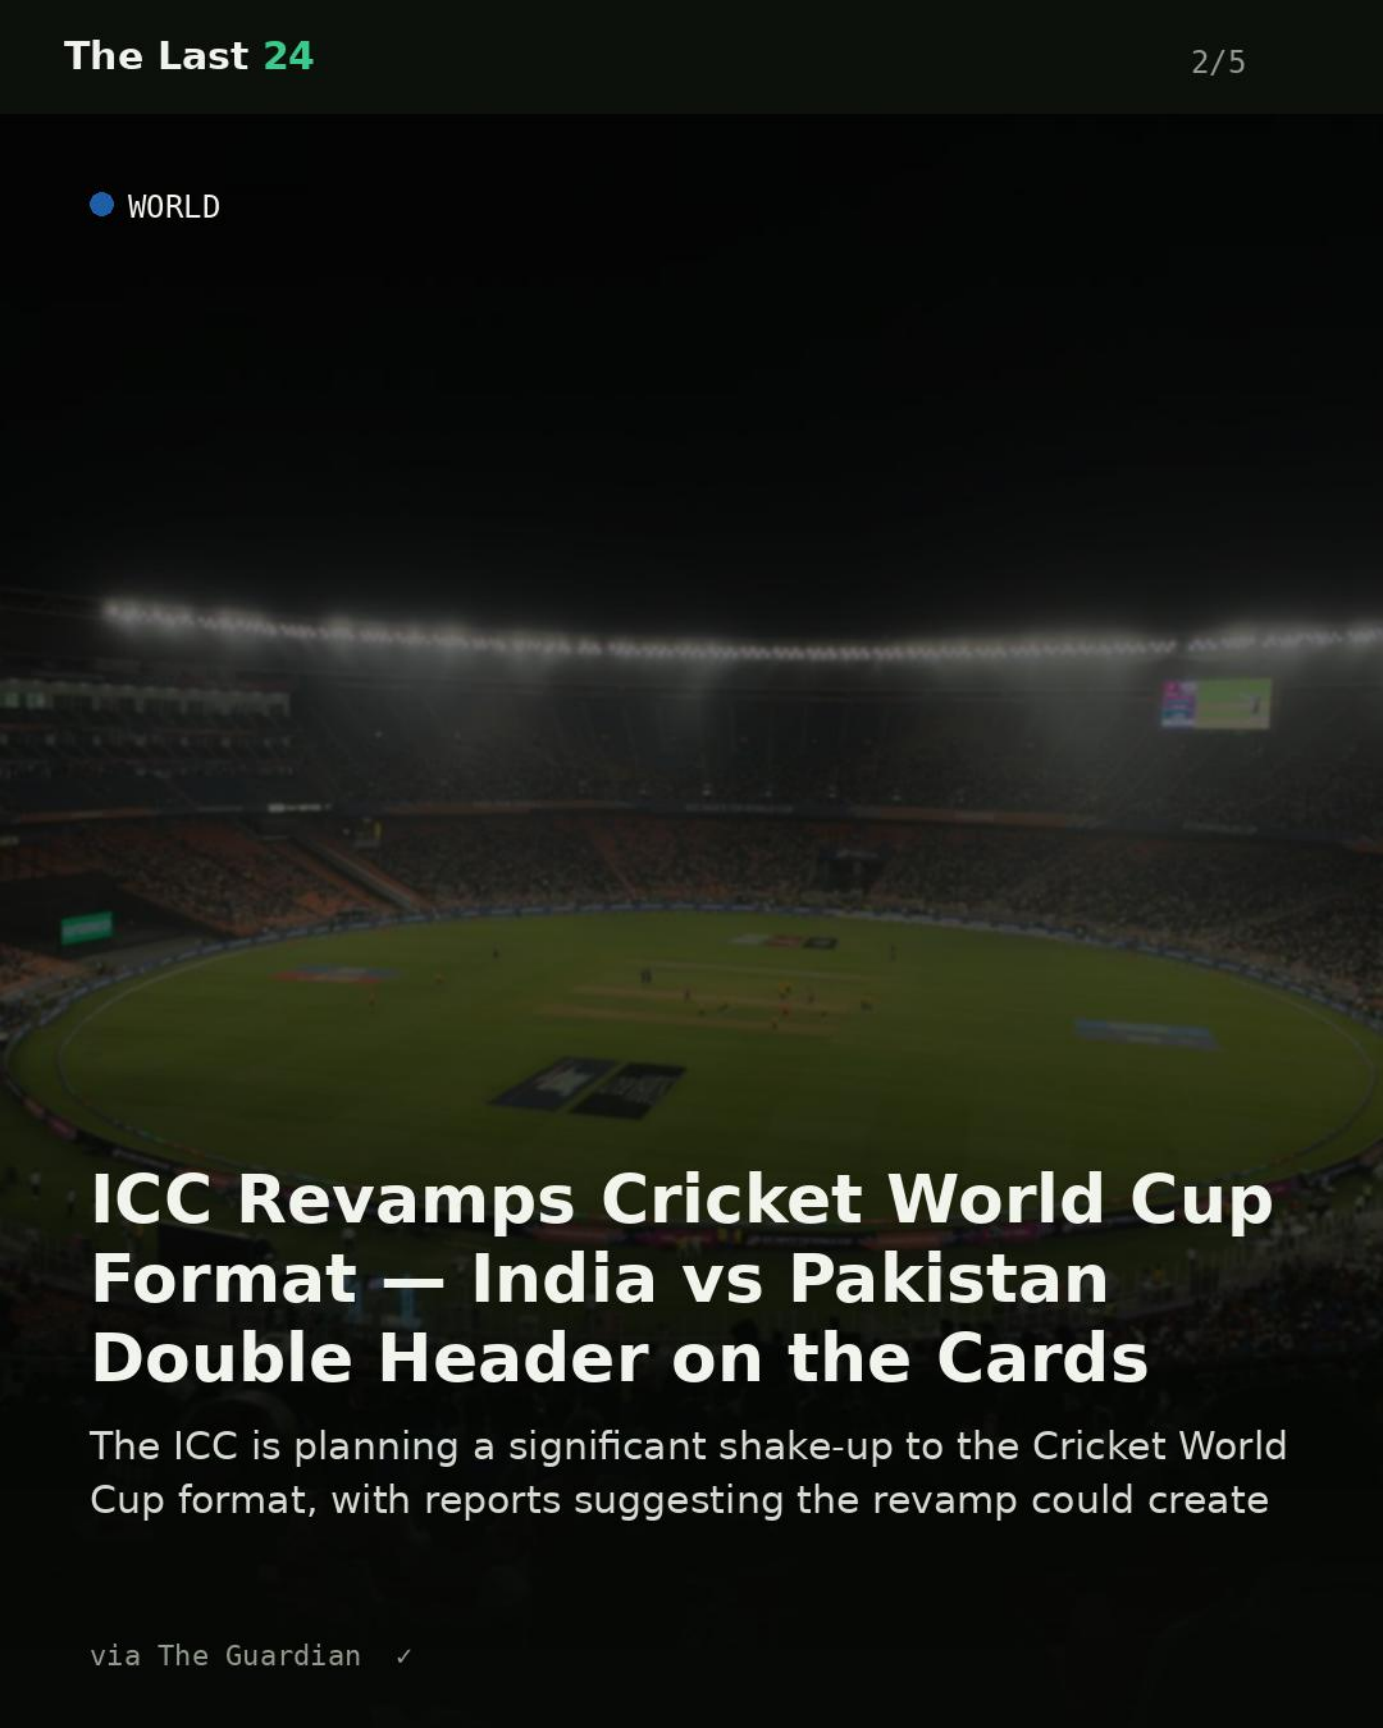

● WORLD ● BREAKING

A photograph of the Kudankulam Nuclear Power Plant in India. The image shows two large, white, dome-shaped containment domes with yellow bands. A tall, red and white striped chimney stands between the domes. In the foreground, there is a white statue of a person with arms raised. The background is a clear blue sky.

Files Relating to India's Largest Nuclear Plant Kudankulam Exposed in Data Breach

Sensitive files relating to the Kudankulam Nuclear Power Plant — India's largest nuclear facility — have been exposed in a

● WORLD

ICC Revamps Cricket World Cup Format — India vs Pakistan Double Header on the Cards

The ICC is planning a significant shake-up to the Cricket World Cup format, with reports suggesting the revamp could create

● WORLD ● BREAKING

Trump Wanted a '20% Hormuz Toll' — How Gulf Leaders Shut It Down in 24 Hours

US President Donald Trump reportedly sought to impose a 20% toll on shipping passing through the Strait of Hormuz, a

● WORLD ● BREAKING

'I Intend to Kill Muslims': Indian Mall Worker Stabbed 15 Times in US

An Indian man working at a mall in Utah, USA, was stabbed 15 times by a man who reportedly declared 'I intend to kill

● WORLD ● BREAKING

India U19 Opening Pair Puts on 295-Run Stand Against Sri Lanka, Nears World Record

India's Under-19 opening pair came agonisingly close to breaking the world record for an opening partnership in youth

The Last 24

The full brief, every day:

thelast24.in

Everything that mattered in India, in five minutes.

