

The Last 24

Everything that happened in Business & Markets

on Tuesday, 23 June 2026

Flip through to read more →

● BUSINESS & MARKETS

A man in a dark hoodie is looking intently at a computer monitor in a dimly lit room. The monitor displays a web interface with the word 'Encrypting' in orange at the top and 'Password Decryptor' below it. The man's expression is one of surprise or concern. A woman is partially visible on the left, looking down. The background is dark and textured.

Tata Electronics hit by cyber breach claiming to expose Apple and Tesla trade secrets

Tata Electronics has been struck by a significant cyber breach, with attackers claiming to have accessed sensitive trade

● BUSINESS & MARKETS ● BREAKING

Rupee falls 30 paise to 94.63 against dollar amid Middle East uncertainty

The Indian rupee depreciated sharply by 30 paise to close at 94.63 against the US dollar on Monday, pressured by rising

● BUSINESS & MARKETS

Farm bodies and trade unions write to PM Modi opposing FTA with US

A coalition of farm organisations and trade unions has written to Prime Minister Narendra Modi, urging the government not

● BUSINESS & MARKETS

India-UK trade deal nears July 15 rollout as Keir Starmer steps down

The India-United Kingdom Free Trade Agreement is on track for a formal rollout around July 15, even as British Prime

● BUSINESS & MARKETS

India's economy is booming — so why are foreign investors looking away?

Despite India posting strong GDP growth and a surge in domestic consumption, foreign institutional investors have via India Today ✓

The Last 24

The full brief, every day:

thelast24.in

Everything that mattered in India, in five minutes.

