

The Last 24

Everything that happened in Technology

on Tuesday, 23 June 2026

Flip through to read more →

● TECHNOLOGY ● BREAKING

Kunal Shah, CRED founder, appointed WhatsApp CEO as Meta invests $900 million in his startup

Meta has appointed Kunal Shah, the Indian entrepreneur who founded fintech rewards platform CRED, as the new head of

● TECHNOLOGY ● BREAKING

X goes down globally as thousands of users report widespread outages

X, the social media platform formerly known as Twitter, experienced a significant outage with thousands of users

● TECHNOLOGY ● BREAKING

Valve Prices the Steam Machine at $1,049

Valve has officially priced its Steam Machine gaming PC at $1,049, marking a significant development for the PC gaming

● TECHNOLOGY ● BREAKING

Air India Appoints Former Civil Aviation Secretary as Advisor to Chairman

Air India has appointed a former civil aviation secretary of India as advisor to its chairman, the airline announced.

● TECHNOLOGY

Krafton India Makes Strategic Investment in Bitkraft Ventures' Global Gaming Fund

Krafton India, the Indian subsidiary of the South Korean gaming giant behind BGMI (Battlegrounds Mobile India), has

The Last 24

The full brief, every day:

thelast24.in

Everything that mattered in India, in five minutes.

