

The Last 24

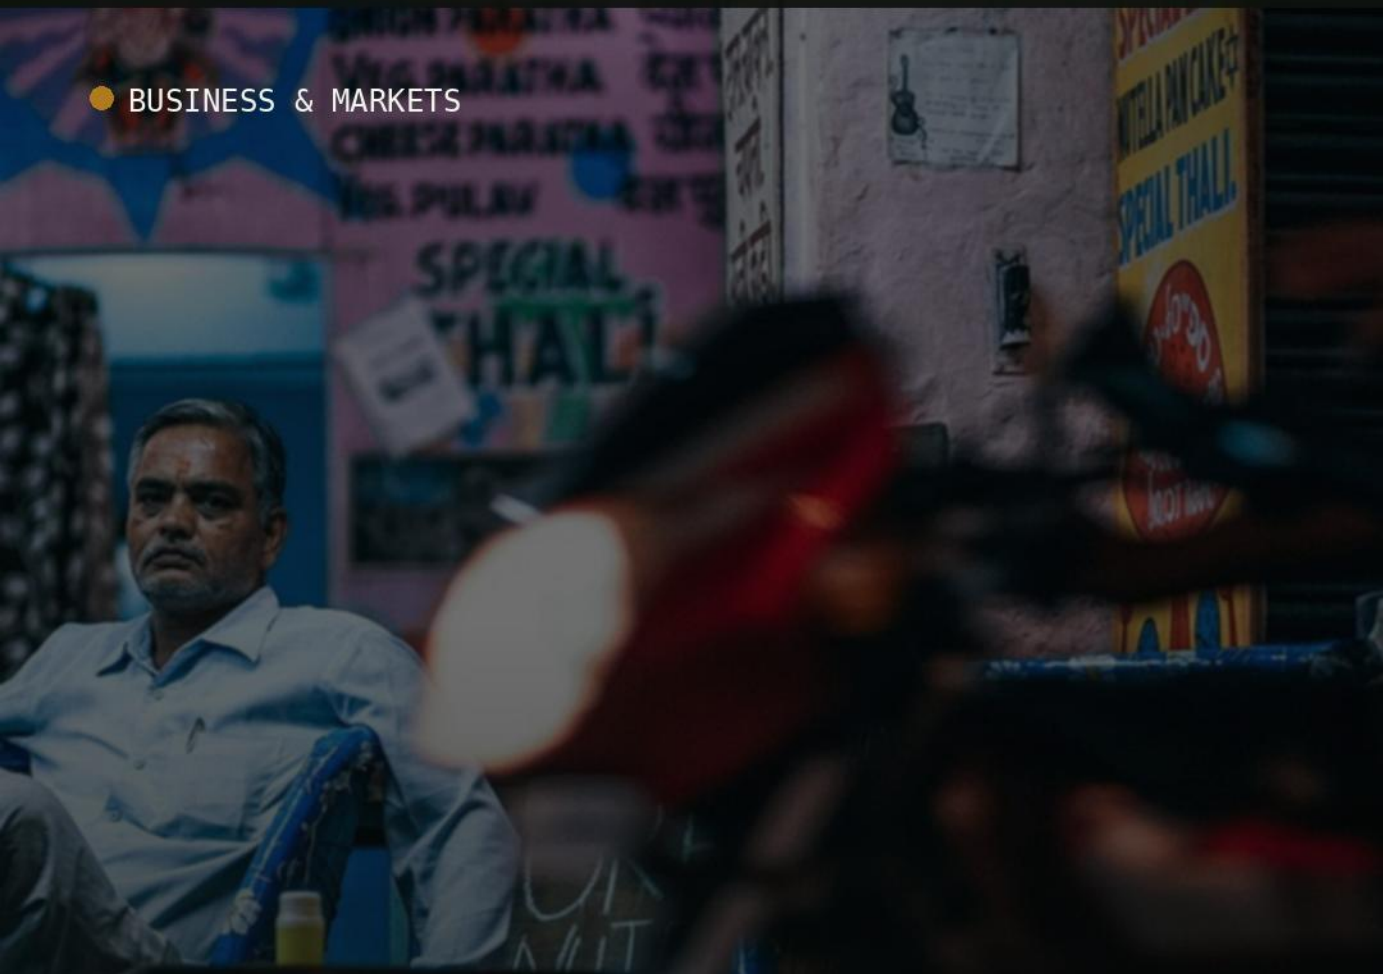

Everything that happened in business & markets

on Sunday, 28 June 2026

Flip through to read more →

● BUSINESS & MARKETS

National Traders' Welfare Board Pushes for Wider ONDC Adoption Among Small Traders

The National Traders' Welfare Board has thrown its weight behind a campaign to expand adoption of the Open Network

● BUSINESS & MARKETS

India Plans AI-Powered Architecture to Modernise Official Statistics

India is exploring a sweeping overhaul of its official statistics infrastructure, with plans to build an AI-powered architecture

via Business Standard ✓

● BUSINESS & MARKETS

Domestic Mutual Funds vs FPIs: Who Is Really Driving India's Equity Market?

Business Standard examines the evolving power dynamic between Domestic Mutual Funds (DMFs) and Foreign Portfolio

● BUSINESS & MARKETS

India's Economy Showing Resilience Against Gulf Conflict Fallout

Business Standard analyses India's economic exposure to the ongoing Gulf conflict, arguing that India's macroeconomic

● BUSINESS & MARKETS ● BREAKING

Five Big Triggers That Could Swing the Indian Stock Market This Week

As a new trading week begins, Mint has identified five key macro and geopolitical triggers that investors should watch

via Mint ✓

The Last 24

The full brief, every day:

thelast24.in

Everything that mattered in India, in five minutes.

