

The Last 24

Everything that happened in the world

on Wednesday, 08 July 2026

Flip through to read more →

● WORLD ● BREAKING

Trump declares Iran ceasefire 'over', launches fresh strikes and threatens civilian infrastructure

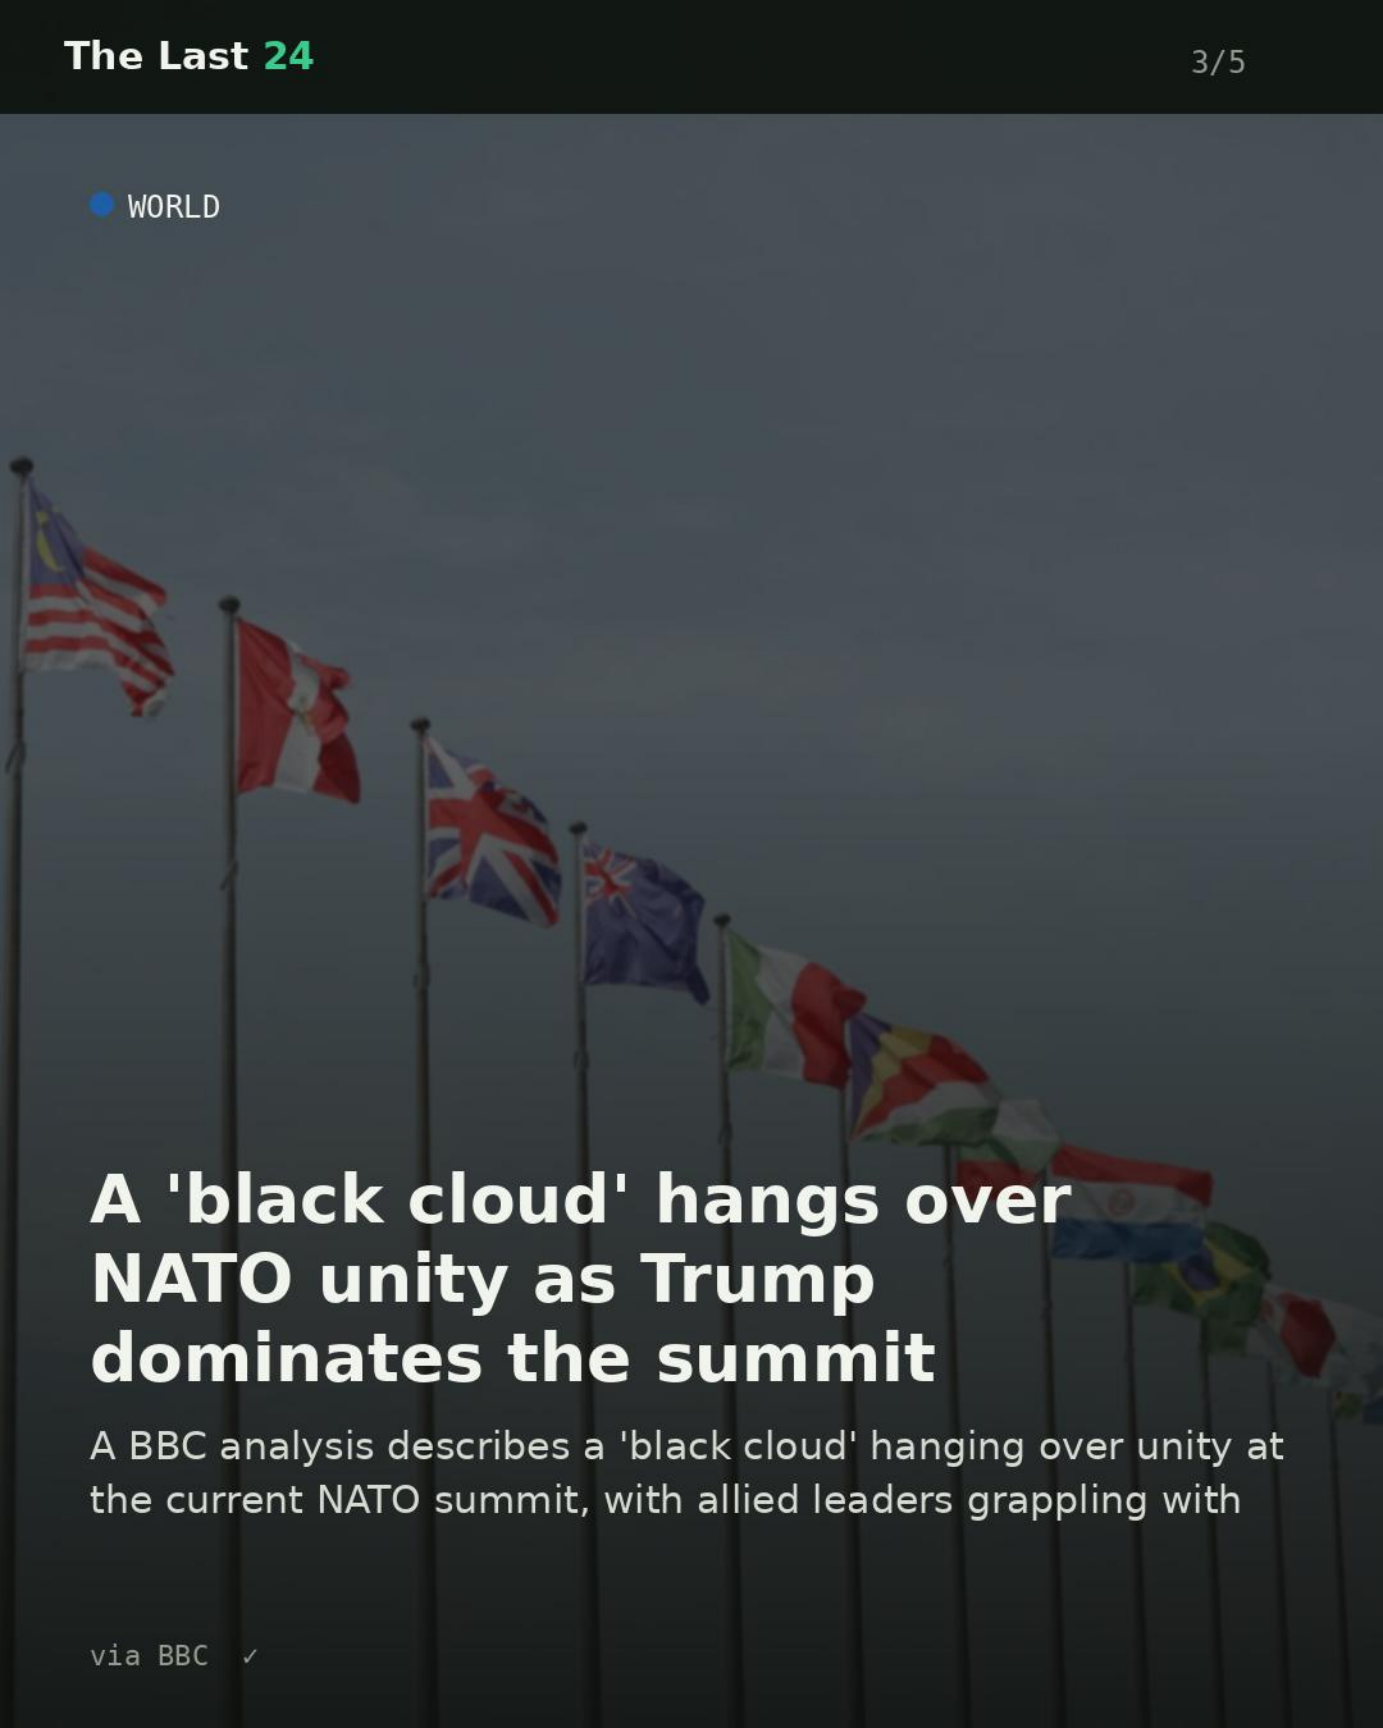

US President Donald Trump declared the ceasefire with Iran 'over' and warned of deeper strikes, saying the US would hit

● WORLD

IMF cuts 2026 global growth forecast to 3%, but sees a rebound in 2027

The International Monetary Fund has lowered its 2026 global growth forecast to 3%, citing rising geopolitical tensions,

● WORLD

A row of NATO member flags flying against a grey sky. The flags include Malaysia, Denmark, the United Kingdom, New Zealand, Italy, and others, arranged in a diagonal line from the bottom left to the top right.

A 'black cloud' hangs over NATO unity as Trump dominates the summit

A BBC analysis describes a 'black cloud' hanging over unity at the current NATO summit, with allied leaders grappling with

● WORLD ● BREAKING

A portrait of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, an elderly man with a white beard and glasses, wearing a dark blue kurta. The background is a solid grey color.

PM Modi visits exhibition marking the Golden Jubilee of the 1965 India-Pakistan war

Prime Minister Narendra Modi visited an exhibition organised to mark the Golden Jubilee of the 1965 India-Pakistan war,

● WORLD ● BREAKING

Trump calls Spain a 'wasted cause', cuts off all trade with the NATO ally

US President Donald Trump declared he wants nothing to do with Spain, calling it a 'wasted cause' and a 'terrible partner',

The Last 24

The full brief, every day:

thelast24.in

Everything that mattered in India, in five minutes.

