

The Last 24

Everything that happened in the world

on Sunday, 12 July 2026

Flip through to read more →

● WORLD

3 Border Posts and Offshore Oil Platform Attacked in Kuwait; 1 Injured

Three border posts and an offshore oil platform in Kuwait were attacked, leaving one person injured, as the US-Iran conflict

● WORLD

Former Spanish PM José María Aznar Accused of Racism Over French Football Team Remarks

Former Spanish Prime Minister José María Aznar has been accused of racism after making remarks about the French

● WORLD

Projectiles Hit Iran's Qeshm Island as Washington-Tehran Conflict Escalates

Projectiles struck Iran's Qeshm Island as the confrontation between Washington and Tehran intensified sharply.

via NDTV ✓

● WORLD

Oman Summons Iran Ambassador, Condemns 'Irresponsible Acts'

Oman summoned the Iranian ambassador and condemned what it called 'irresponsible acts' following the latest attack in

● WORLD ● BREAKING

Strait of Hormuz Remains Open, Maritime Group Says, Contradicting Iran's Claim

A maritime group confirmed that the Strait of Hormuz remains open to shipping, directly contradicting Iran's declaration that

The Last 24

The full brief, every day:

thelast24.in

Everything that mattered in India, in five minutes.

