

The Last 24

Everything that happened in the world

on Tuesday, 30 June 2026

Flip through to read more →

● WORLD ● BREAKING

Pakistan Insists Indus Waters Treaty Is 'Valid, Binding and Operative' as Tensions Simmer

Pakistan's Deputy Prime Minister has declared that the Indus Waters Treaty remains 'valid, binding and operative', pushing

● WORLD

US Supreme Court Blocks Trump's Birthright Citizenship Order — A Relief for Indians in America

The United States Supreme Court has dealt a blow to President Donald Trump's executive order seeking to end

● WORLD

A photograph of Donald Trump, with his characteristic blonde hair, wearing a dark blue suit and a dark tie. He is seated at a table, leaning forward and signing a document with a pen. Standing behind him is another man in a dark blue suit and a light blue tie, looking down at the document. The background is a blurred interior space with large columns and a checkered floor.

US and Iran to Hold Indirect Nuclear Talks in Doha with Mediators

The United States and Iran are set to hold indirect talks in Doha, Qatar, with mediators facilitating the negotiations,

● WORLD

Spain Recorded Over 1,000 Heat-Related Deaths in June as Europe's Crisis Deepens

Spain recorded over 1,000 heat-related deaths in June alone, according to new figures that underscore the deadly severity

● WORLD

Bangladesh Orders Media Not to Report Sheikh Hasina's Remarks After NDTV Interview

Bangladeshi media organisations have been instructed not to report on remarks made by former Prime Minister Sheikh

The Last 24

The full brief, every day:

thelast24.in

Everything that mattered in India, in five minutes.

