

The Last 24

Everything that happened in business & markets

on Saturday, 27 June 2026

Flip through to read more →

● BUSINESS & MARKETS

India-China border trade via Lipulekh yet to take off despite June 1 reopening

Despite the formal reopening of the Lipulekh border pass for trade with China on June 1, commercial activity through the

● BUSINESS & MARKETS

US envoy Sergio Gor says Trump's H-1B visa changes 'not targeted at India'

US envoy Sergio Gor has publicly defended the Trump administration's changes to the H-1B visa programme,

● BUSINESS & MARKETS

India's family firms are booming — but the succession question looms large

India's family-owned businesses are experiencing a period of strong growth, but the question of who will lead them into the

● BUSINESS & MARKETS ● BREAKING

Kotak Mahindra Bank CEO Ashok Vaswani to step down at year-end

Ashok Vaswani, the MD and CEO of Kotak Mahindra Bank, will step down from his position at the end of the year for

● BUSINESS & MARKETS

Moscow says Delhi is 'free' to decide on Russia oil trade under US deal

Russia has publicly stated that India is free to make its own decisions regarding its trade in Russian oil, following reports

The Last 24

The full brief, every day:

thelast24.in

Everything that mattered in India, in five minutes.

