

The Last 24

Everything that happened in Technology

on Monday, 22 June 2026

Flip through to read more →

● TECHNOLOGY

West Asia crisis has slashed startup funding 43% year-on-year since March

Global startup funding flowing into India has dropped 43% year-on-year since March, with the ongoing West Asia crisis

● TECHNOLOGY

AI agents are quietly reshaping India's IT services workforce

Artificial intelligence agents — software systems capable of autonomously executing multi-step tasks — are increasingly

via Business Standard ✓

● TECHNOLOGY

Indian startup builds balcony escape system for high-rise fires after elevator failures

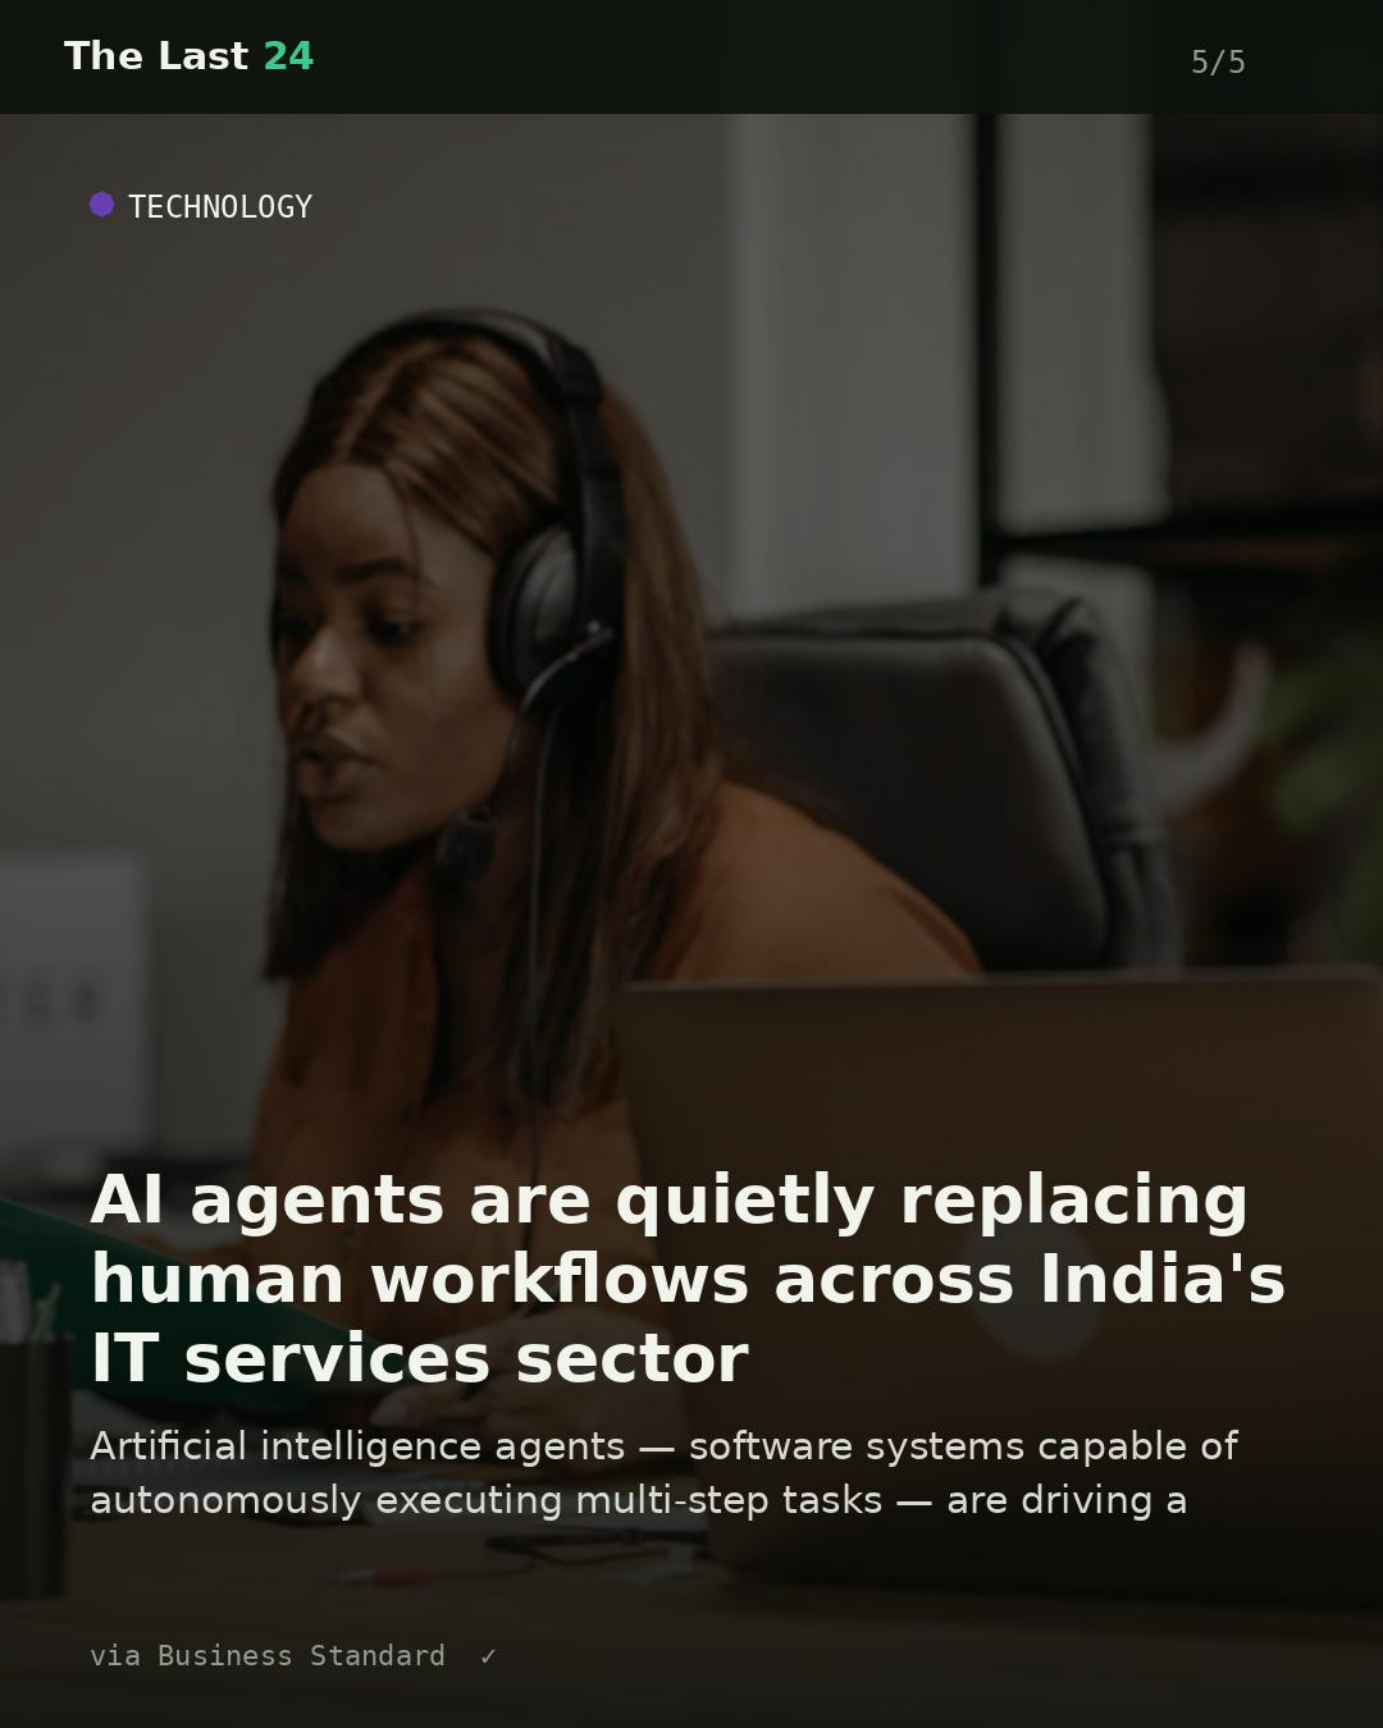

An Indian startup has developed a balcony-based emergency escape system designed to let residents evacuate high-rise

● TECHNOLOGY

India Must Invest in Deep Tech, Not Rely on Global Trends, Says Neelkanth Mishra

Economist and Axis Bank chief economist Neelkanth Mishra has called on India to prioritise investment in deep

● TECHNOLOGY

A woman with long brown hair is wearing a large black headset with a microphone. She is looking down at a laptop screen, which is partially visible in the foreground. The background is a blurred office environment with shelves and other equipment. The overall tone is professional and focused.

AI agents are quietly replacing human workflows across India's IT services sector

Artificial intelligence agents — software systems capable of autonomously executing multi-step tasks — are driving a

The Last 24

The full brief, every day:

thelast24.in

Everything that mattered in India, in five minutes.

