

The Last 24

Everything that happened in Business & Markets

on Wednesday, 24 June 2026

Flip through to read more →

● BUSINESS & MARKETS

A background image showing a handshake in the foreground, with numerous US dollar bills falling or floating in the air behind it, creating a sense of financial agreement or success.

India-US trade deal may be signed before July 24 as Washington calls it 'very, very close'

A landmark trade agreement between India and the United States could be signed before July 24, with Washington

● BUSINESS & MARKETS

Country	Growth (%)
Thailand	65
Philippines	55
Ethiopia	50
Columbia	45
Australia	35
Vietnam	30
Brazil	25

NITI Aayog launches eighth edition of Trade Watch Quarterly

NITI Aayog has released the eighth edition of its 'Trade Watch Quarterly', a flagship publication that tracks India's

● BUSINESS & MARKETS ● BREAKING

Sensex rebounds 291 points as GIFT Nifty signals positive open despite Wall Street tech sell-off

Indian equity markets opened positively on June 24, with the Sensex rebounding 291 points, even as Wall Street's

● BUSINESS & MARKETS

Markets brace for inflation risk as India weighs El Niño threat to agriculture

Indian financial markets are factoring in the risk that an El Niño weather pattern could disrupt the monsoon and drive up

● BUSINESS & MARKETS ● BREAKING

Vaibhav Sooryavanshi at INR 35 crore, Rishabh Pant-Kuldeep trade: IPL 2027's value paradox laid bare

The IPL's transfer market has thrown up a striking value paradox ahead of the 2027 season: Delhi Capitals and

The Last 24

The full brief, every day:

thelast24.in

Everything that mattered in India, in five minutes.

