

100

● ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

A security camera mounted on a wall with two electrical boxes and cables.

Meta halts employee tracking programme for AI training over privacy fears

Meta has paused a programme that tracked its workers' activities for the purpose of training artificial intelligence

● ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

AI startup sues US government over export curbs blocking access to Anthropic's advanced models

An AI startup has filed a lawsuit against the United States government, challenging export restrictions that have cut off

● ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

China reclaims world supercomputer crown from US for first time since 2017

China has overtaken the United States to claim the top position in global supercomputing rankings for the first time

● ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

Anthropic's Mythos AI model found vulnerabilities in classified US government systems

Anthropic's Mythos AI model has reportedly uncovered vulnerabilities in classified United States government

● ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

'Kicking down the AI ladder': How advanced nations are pulling up AI access behind them

The New Indian Express has published an opinion piece arguing that wealthy, technologically advanced nations are

The Last 24

The full brief, every day:

thelast24.in

Everything that mattered in India, in five minutes.

