

The Last 24

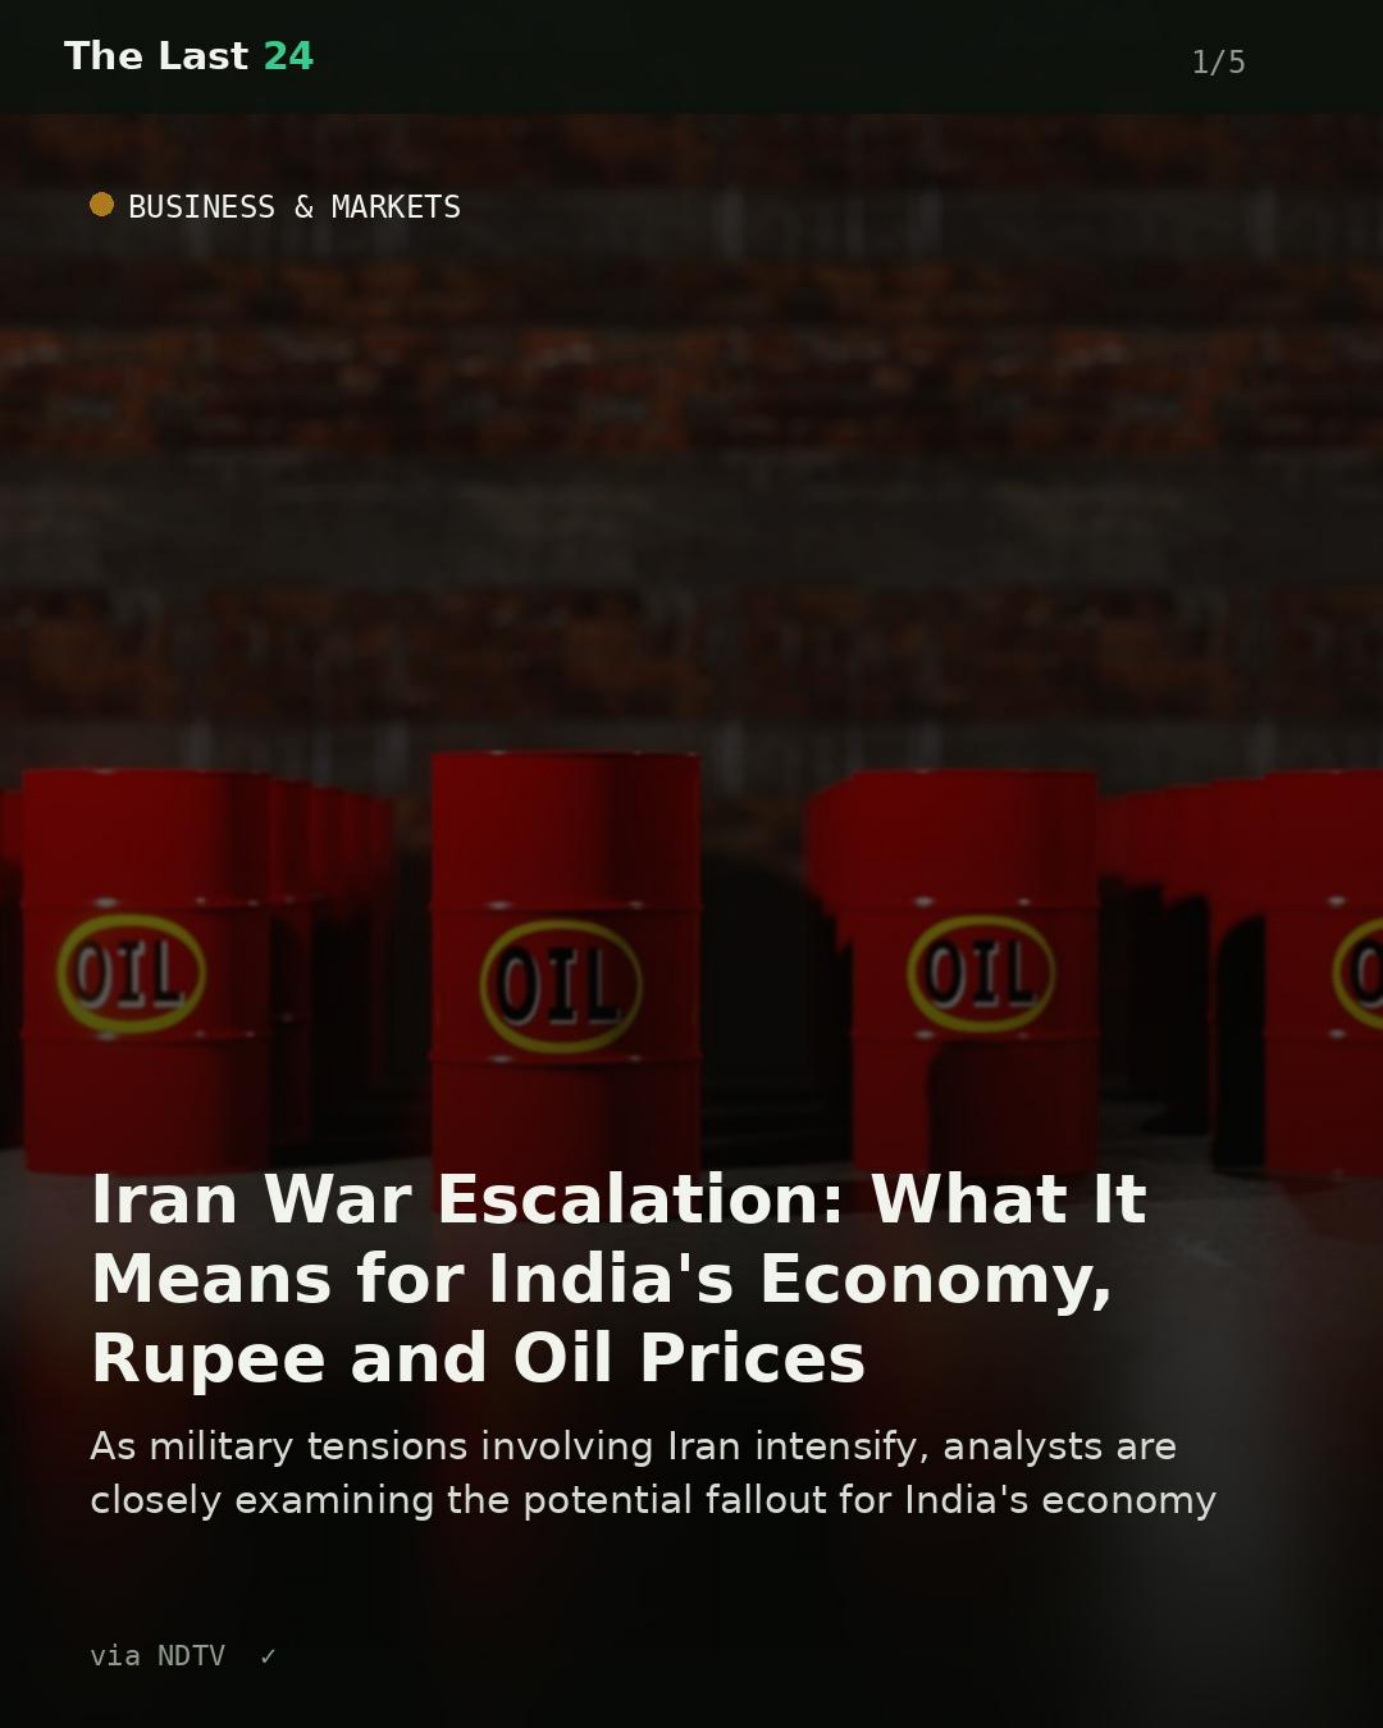

Everything that happened in business & markets

on Tuesday, 14 July 2026

Flip through to read more →

● BUSINESS & MARKETS

Iran War Escalation: What It Means for India's Economy, Rupee and Oil Prices

As military tensions involving Iran intensify, analysts are closely examining the potential fallout for India's economy

● BUSINESS & MARKETS

IBM Stock Crashes Over 25% — What Triggered the Steep Plunge

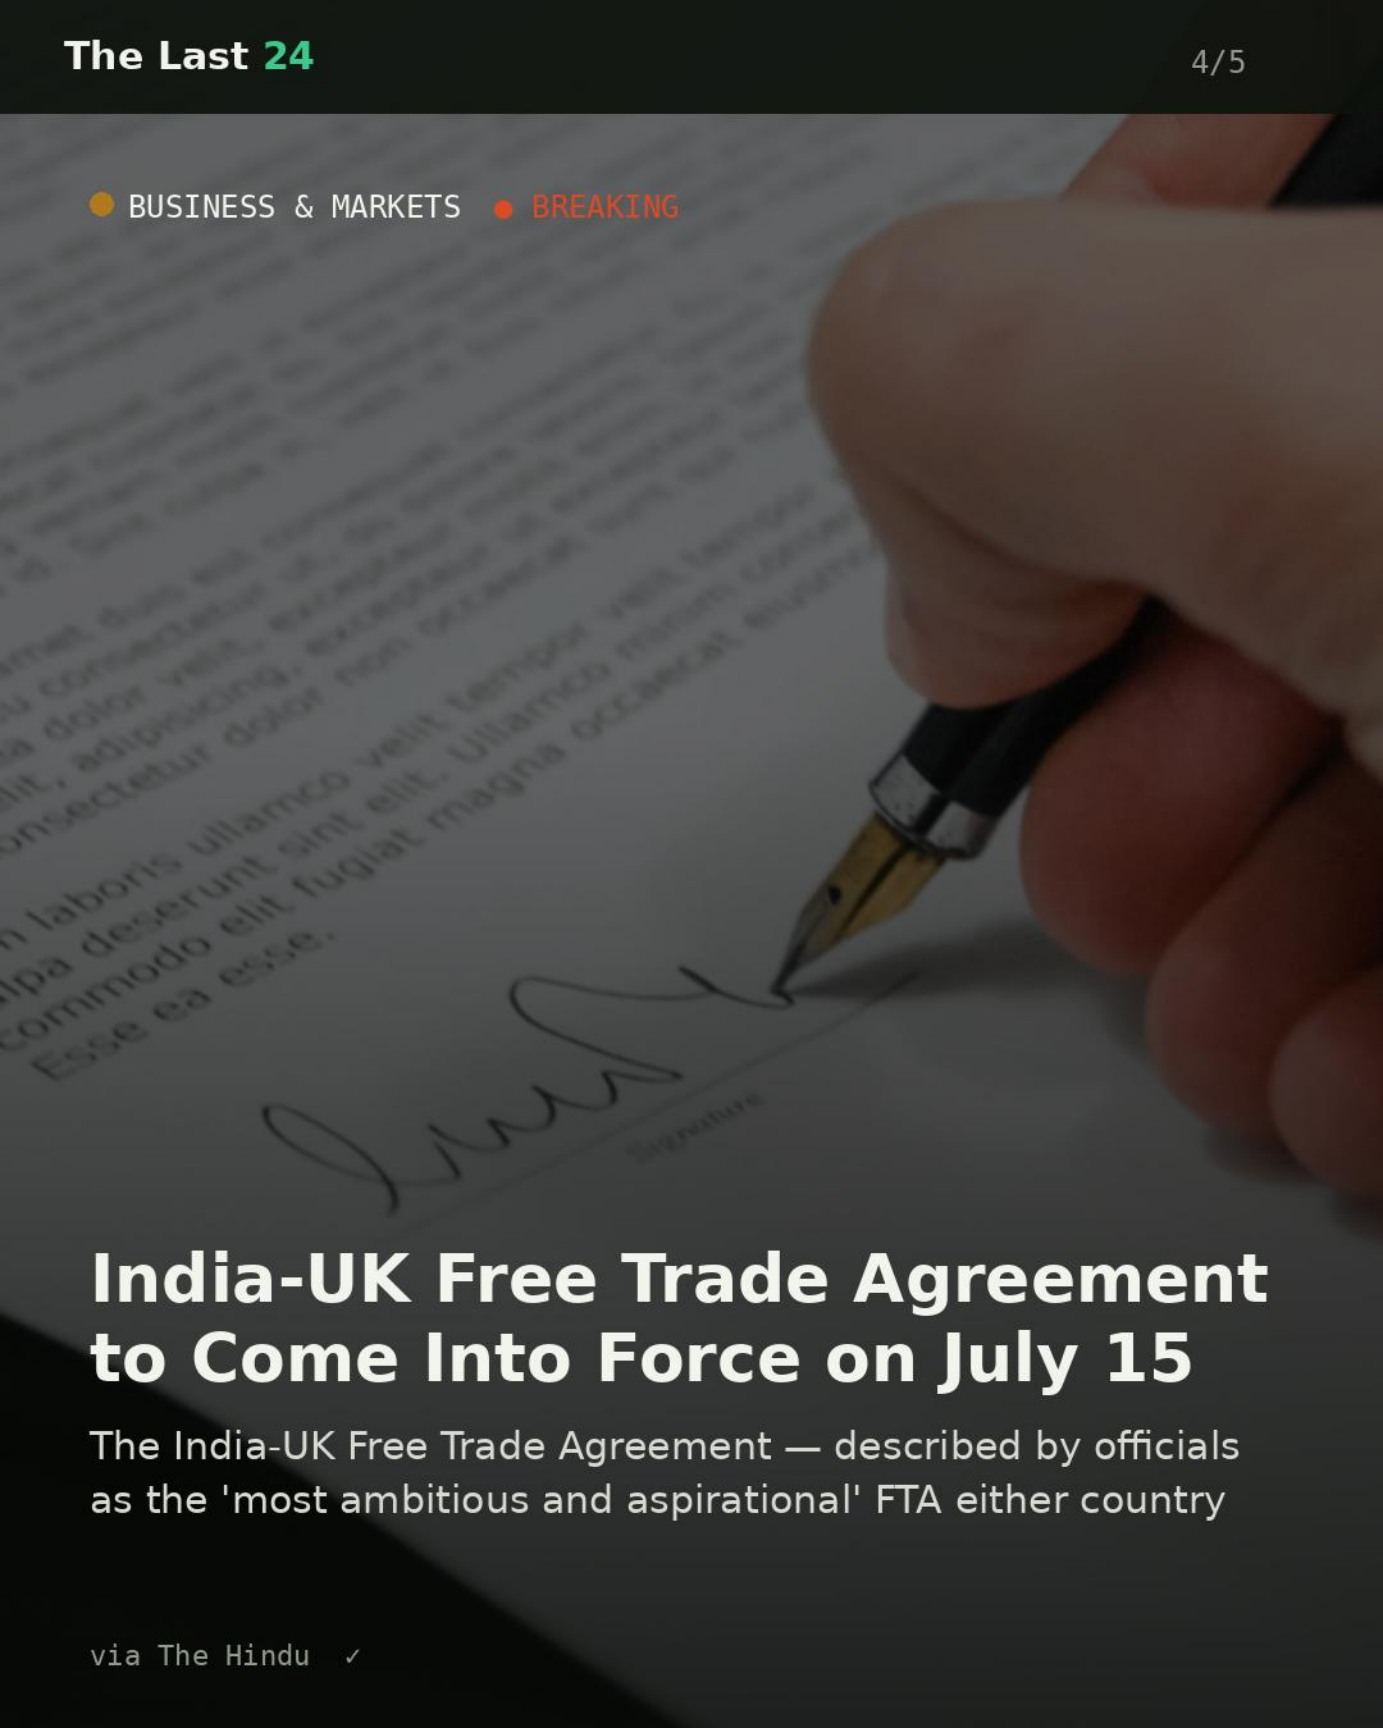

Shares of IBM plunged more than 25% in a single session, marking one of the sharpest single-day falls for the tech giant

● BUSINESS & MARKETS

Bharat Tex 2026 Opens with Record International Participation

Union Minister of Textiles inaugurated Bharat Tex 2026, described as India's largest global textile event, with the

● BUSINESS & MARKETS ● BREAKING

A close-up photograph of a hand holding a black fountain pen with a gold nib, signing a document. The document has faint, illegible text and a line for a signature. The background is dark and out of focus.

India-UK Free Trade Agreement to Come Into Force on July 15

The India-UK Free Trade Agreement — described by officials as the 'most ambitious and aspirational' FTA either country

● BUSINESS & MARKETS ● BREAKING

Sensex Closes 560 Points Lower as Oil Rally and West Asia Tensions Rattle Markets

India's benchmark Sensex closed around 560 points lower as a surge in crude oil prices, triggered by escalating US-Iran

via NDTV ✓

The Last 24

The full brief, every day:

thelast24.in

Everything that mattered in India, in five minutes.

