

The Last 24

Everything that happened in the world

on Tuesday, 14 July 2026

Flip through to read more →

● WORLD ● BREAKING

US Launches Fresh Airstrikes on Iran as Trump Claims Tehran 'Shot First'

The United States has launched a new round of airstrikes on Iran, with President Donald Trump asserting that Iran 'shot

● WORLD

Trump Backs Russia Sanctions Bill That Could Impose 500% Tariff Threat on India

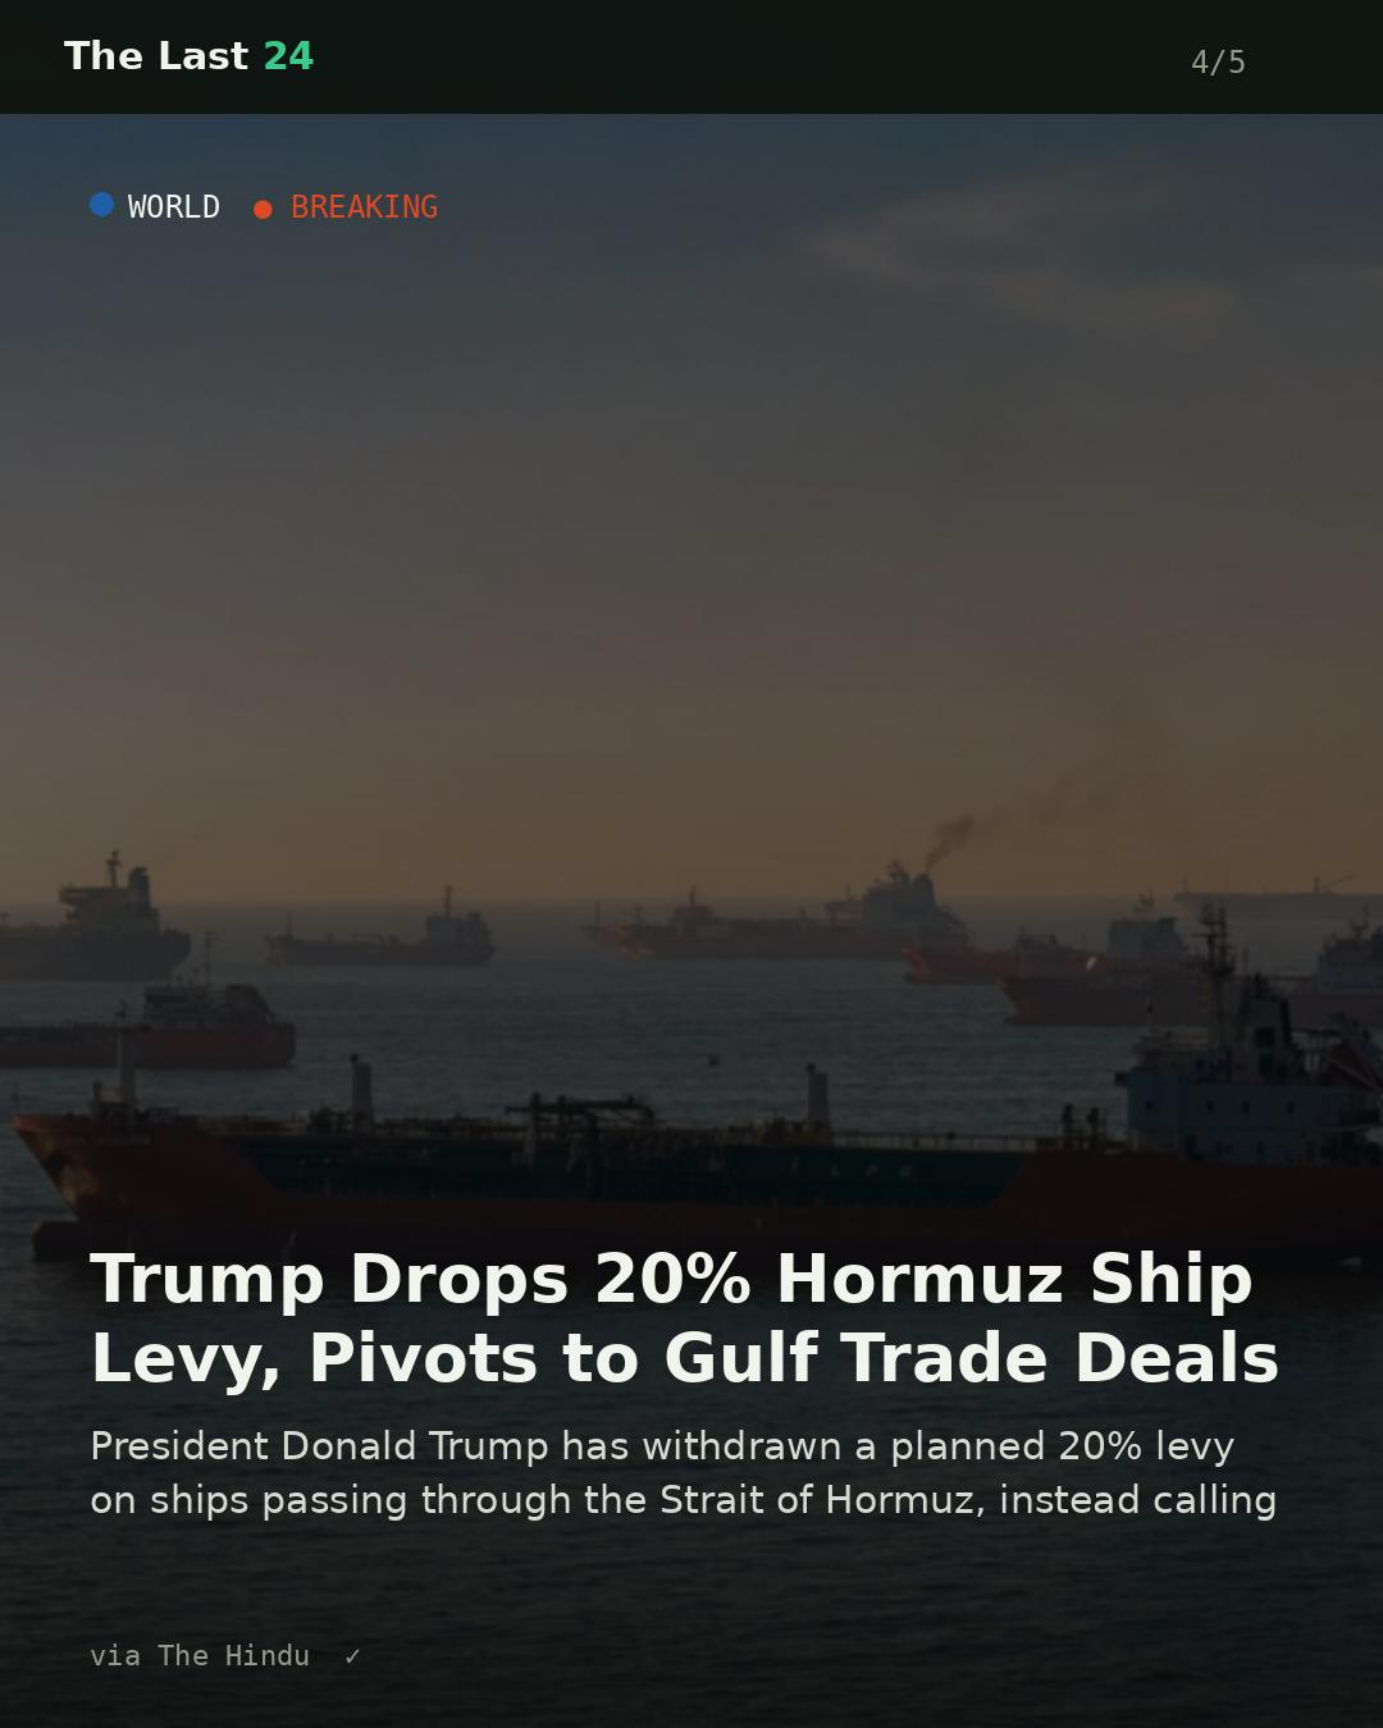

US President Donald Trump has reportedly backed a Russia sanctions bill that poses a 500% tariff threat to India,

● WORLD

Meta Used AI to Target Workers With Medical Conditions for Layoffs, Lawsuit Claims

A lawsuit has alleged that Meta used artificial intelligence to identify and target workers with medical conditions when

● WORLD ● BREAKING

Trump Drops 20% Hormuz Ship Levy, Pivots to Gulf Trade Deals

President Donald Trump has withdrawn a planned 20% levy on ships passing through the Strait of Hormuz, instead calling

● WORLD

Why Rubio Wants to Dismantle the International Criminal Court

US Secretary of State Marco Rubio has articulated reasons for wanting to dismantle the International Criminal Court, as

via The Indian Express ✓

The Last 24

The full brief, every day:

thelast24.in

Everything that mattered in India, in five minutes.

