

The Last 24

Everything that happened in the world

on Friday, 10 July 2026

Flip through to read more →

● WORLD

An Iron Dome missile is shown in mid-launch, angled upwards towards the top right of the frame. A large, bright white plume of smoke and fire trails behind the missile's base. The missile itself is dark with a yellow band near the top. It is emerging from a yellow, box-like launcher mounted on a blue metal structure. In the background, a radar dish is visible on a tall pole, and the sky is a hazy, overcast grey.

Israel's Rafael Turns to India for Iron Dome Missiles: Sources

Israel's defence giant Rafael Advanced Defense Systems has approached India seeking supplies of missiles for its Iron

● WORLD

PM Modi Arrives in New Zealand on Final Leg of 3-Nation Tour

Prime Minister Narendra Modi arrived in New Zealand, marking the final stop of a three-nation tour.

via NDTV ✓

● WORLD

India Should Avoid Early Trade Concessions to US, Test Washington's Resolve: SBI Ecowrap

State Bank of India's economic research wing, SBI Ecowrap, has advised the Indian government to hold back from making

● WORLD

India Set to See 25% Rise in Petroleum Product Exports

India, already one of the world's largest exporters of refined oil products, is projected to see a 25% rise in petroleum

● WORLD

How Israel Used 'Kill-Plot' Intel to Convince Trump to Strike Iran Again

Israel shared intelligence with the United States alleging Iran had hatched a fresh plot to assassinate President Donald

The Last 24

The full brief, every day:

thelast24.in

Everything that mattered in India, in five minutes.

