

The Last 24

SATURDAY, 20 JUNE 2026

● TECHNOLOGY

Everything that happened in technology today

✓ via The Hindu

Swipe →

@thelast24

01 – THE BRIEF

Jio files for India's biggest-ever IPO, likely to raise ₹35,000–₹40,000 crore

- Jio IPO expected to raise ₹35,000–₹40,000 crore
- Would be India's largest-ever IPO by size
- Reliance Jio has over 400 million telecom subscribers
- Filing confirmed by The Hindu; BBC also reported the development

Source: The Hindu

The Last 24

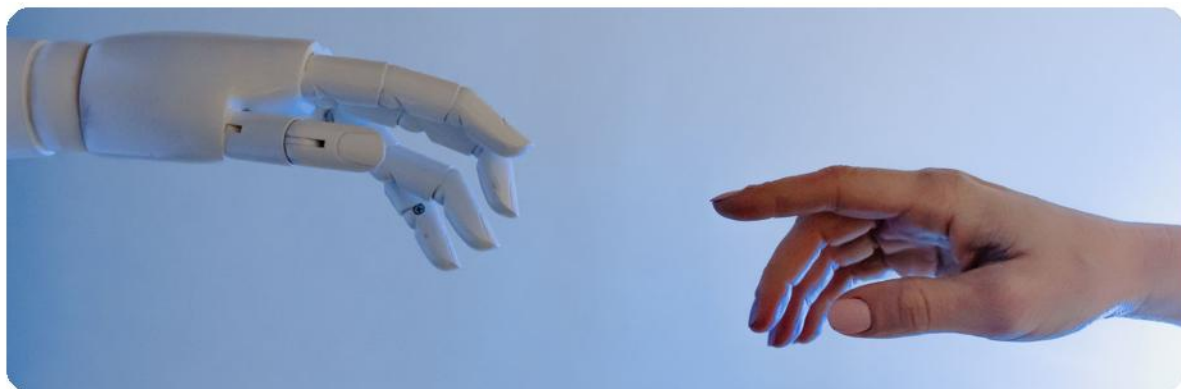

02 — STORY 2

Bengaluru makes global top startup hubs list, cementing India's tech ambitions

Bengaluru listed among global top startup hubs

City hosts multiple unicorn startups and major IT firms

Recognition highlights India's growing global innovation footprint

03 – STORY 3

PM Modi: AI must mean 'All Inclusive'; technology only progresses when

- PM Modi: AI for India means 'All Inclusive', not just Artificial Intelligence
- Modi stated technology progresses only when democratised
- Remarks signal inclusivity as core of India's national AI policy direction

Source: The New Indian Express

The Last 24

04 — STORY 4

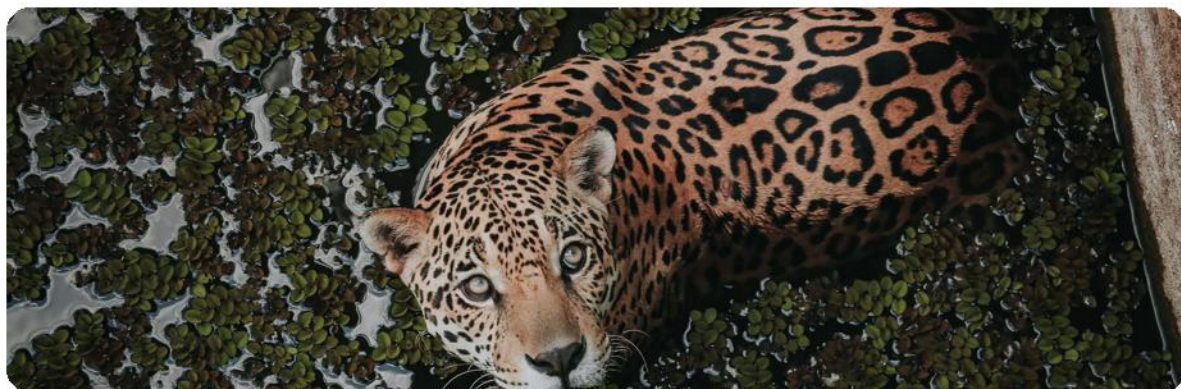

PM Modi at VivaTech 2026: 'For India, AI Means All Inclusive'

Modi spoke at VivaTech 2026 in Paris

Coined phrase: 'AI means All Inclusive'

Argued technology drives progress only when democratised

Positioned India as a trusted global technology partner

05 — STORY 5

Amazon highlights water conservation measures in India amid data centre

- Amazon highlights water conservation steps for India data centres
- Data centres use large volumes of water for server cooling
- Amazon Web Services competes with Microsoft Azure and Google Cloud in India

Source: Reuters
Scrutiny reflects broader concerns about big tech's environmental footprint in India The Last 24

The Last 24

The full brief, every day

thelast24.in

Everything that mattered in India, in five minutes.

@thelast24