

The Last 24

Everything that happened in technology

on Thursday, 25 June 2026

Flip through to read more →

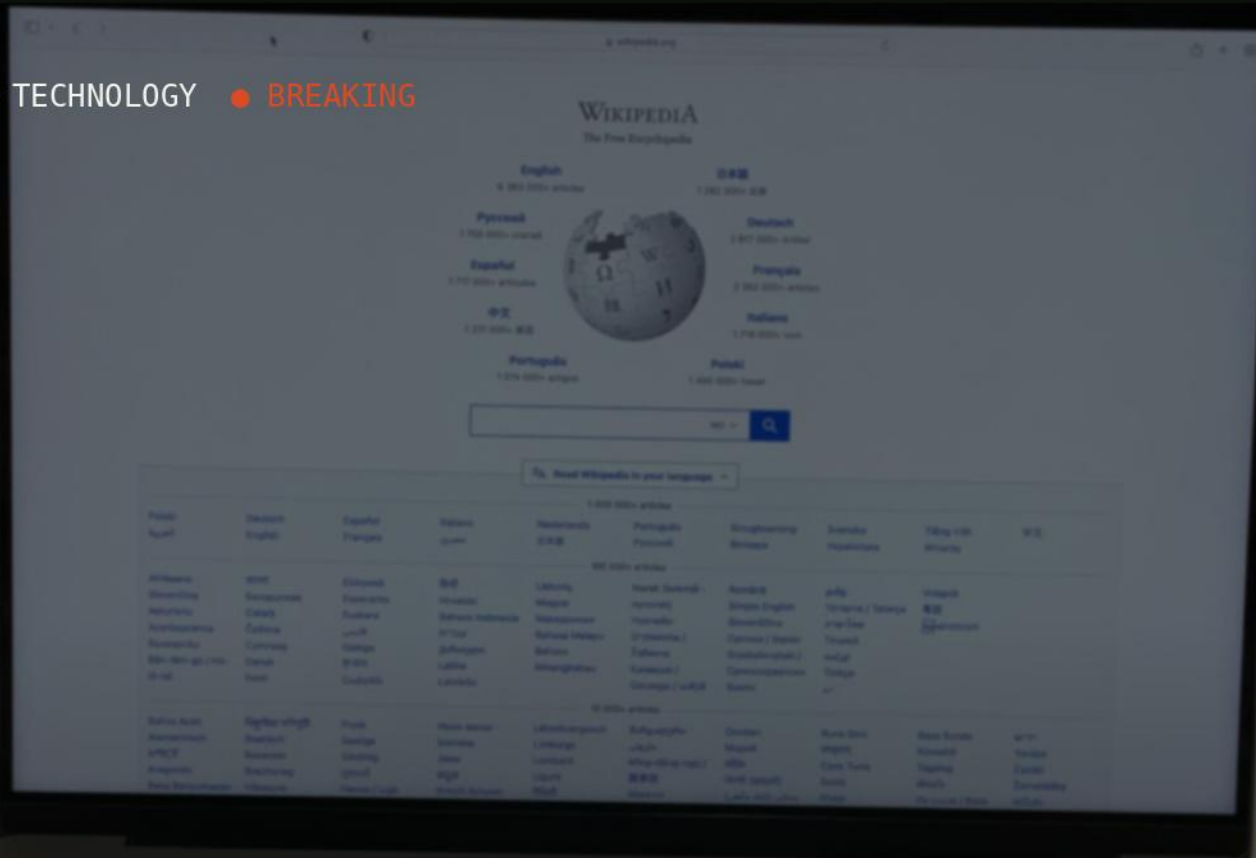

● TECHNOLOGY

Amazon CEO Andy Jassy meets Indian startup founders to map out the next wave of AI

Amazon CEO Andy Jassy sat down with Indian startup founders during his India visit to discuss the country's

● TECHNOLOGY ● BREAKING

Apple hikes iPad and Mac prices in India as AI-driven memory crunch bites — MacBook Pro jumps Rs 70,000

Apple has raised prices on its iPad and Mac lineup in India, with the MacBook Pro seeing the steepest hike of Rs 70,000.

● TECHNOLOGY

Amazon pours $13 billion more into India; Indian IT goes on $4.5 billion M&A spree

Amazon has announced a further $13 billion investment into India, underscoring the country's growing centrality to the

● TECHNOLOGY

A portrait of Union Minister Jitendra Singh, a middle-aged man with dark hair and a mustache, wearing a dark jacket over a blue shirt. The background is a light-colored wall with a green triangular shape on the right side.

India's future security will be shaped by AI and quantum tech, says Minister Jitendra Singh

Union Minister Jitendra Singh has declared that India's future national security architecture will be shaped by artificial

● TECHNOLOGY

A background image showing a person's hand holding a pen and writing in a notebook. The image is partially obscured by a dark overlay and a semi-transparent orange rectangle on the left side.

'No startup survives in India?' — Young founders push back on the narrative

Young Indian startup founders are challenging the prevailing pessimism about the survivability of new ventures in India,

The Last 24

The full brief, every day:

thelast24.in

Everything that mattered in India, in five minutes.

