

The Last 24

Everything that happened in technology

on Thursday, 02 July 2026

Flip through to read more →

TECHNOLOGY

India second hardest hit as AI-driven tech layoffs accelerate globally

India is the second most affected country in the world as AI-driven layoffs sweep through the technology sector,

TECHNOLOGY

Government sends notices to Telegram and Signal over username features after similar action on WhatsApp

The Indian government has sent notices to Telegram and Signal over their username features, following similar scrutiny

TECHNOLOGY

Over 100 Japanese firms eye semiconductor investments in India via joint ventures and tech partnerships

More than 100 Japanese companies are looking to invest in India's semiconductor sector through joint ventures and

TECHNOLOGY

Japan's 'ninja tech' UNICORN masts to give India's warships greater stealth capability

Japan is set to provide India's warships with advanced stealth technology through what are called UNICORN masts — a

● TECHNOLOGY

Tighter digital rules may hit Indian startups, report warns

A new report warns that tightening digital regulations in India could adversely impact the country's startup ecosystem,

The Last 24

The full brief, every day:

thelast24.in

Everything that mattered in India,
in five minutes.

