

The Last 24

Everything that happened in technology

on Monday, 29 June 2026

Flip through to read more →

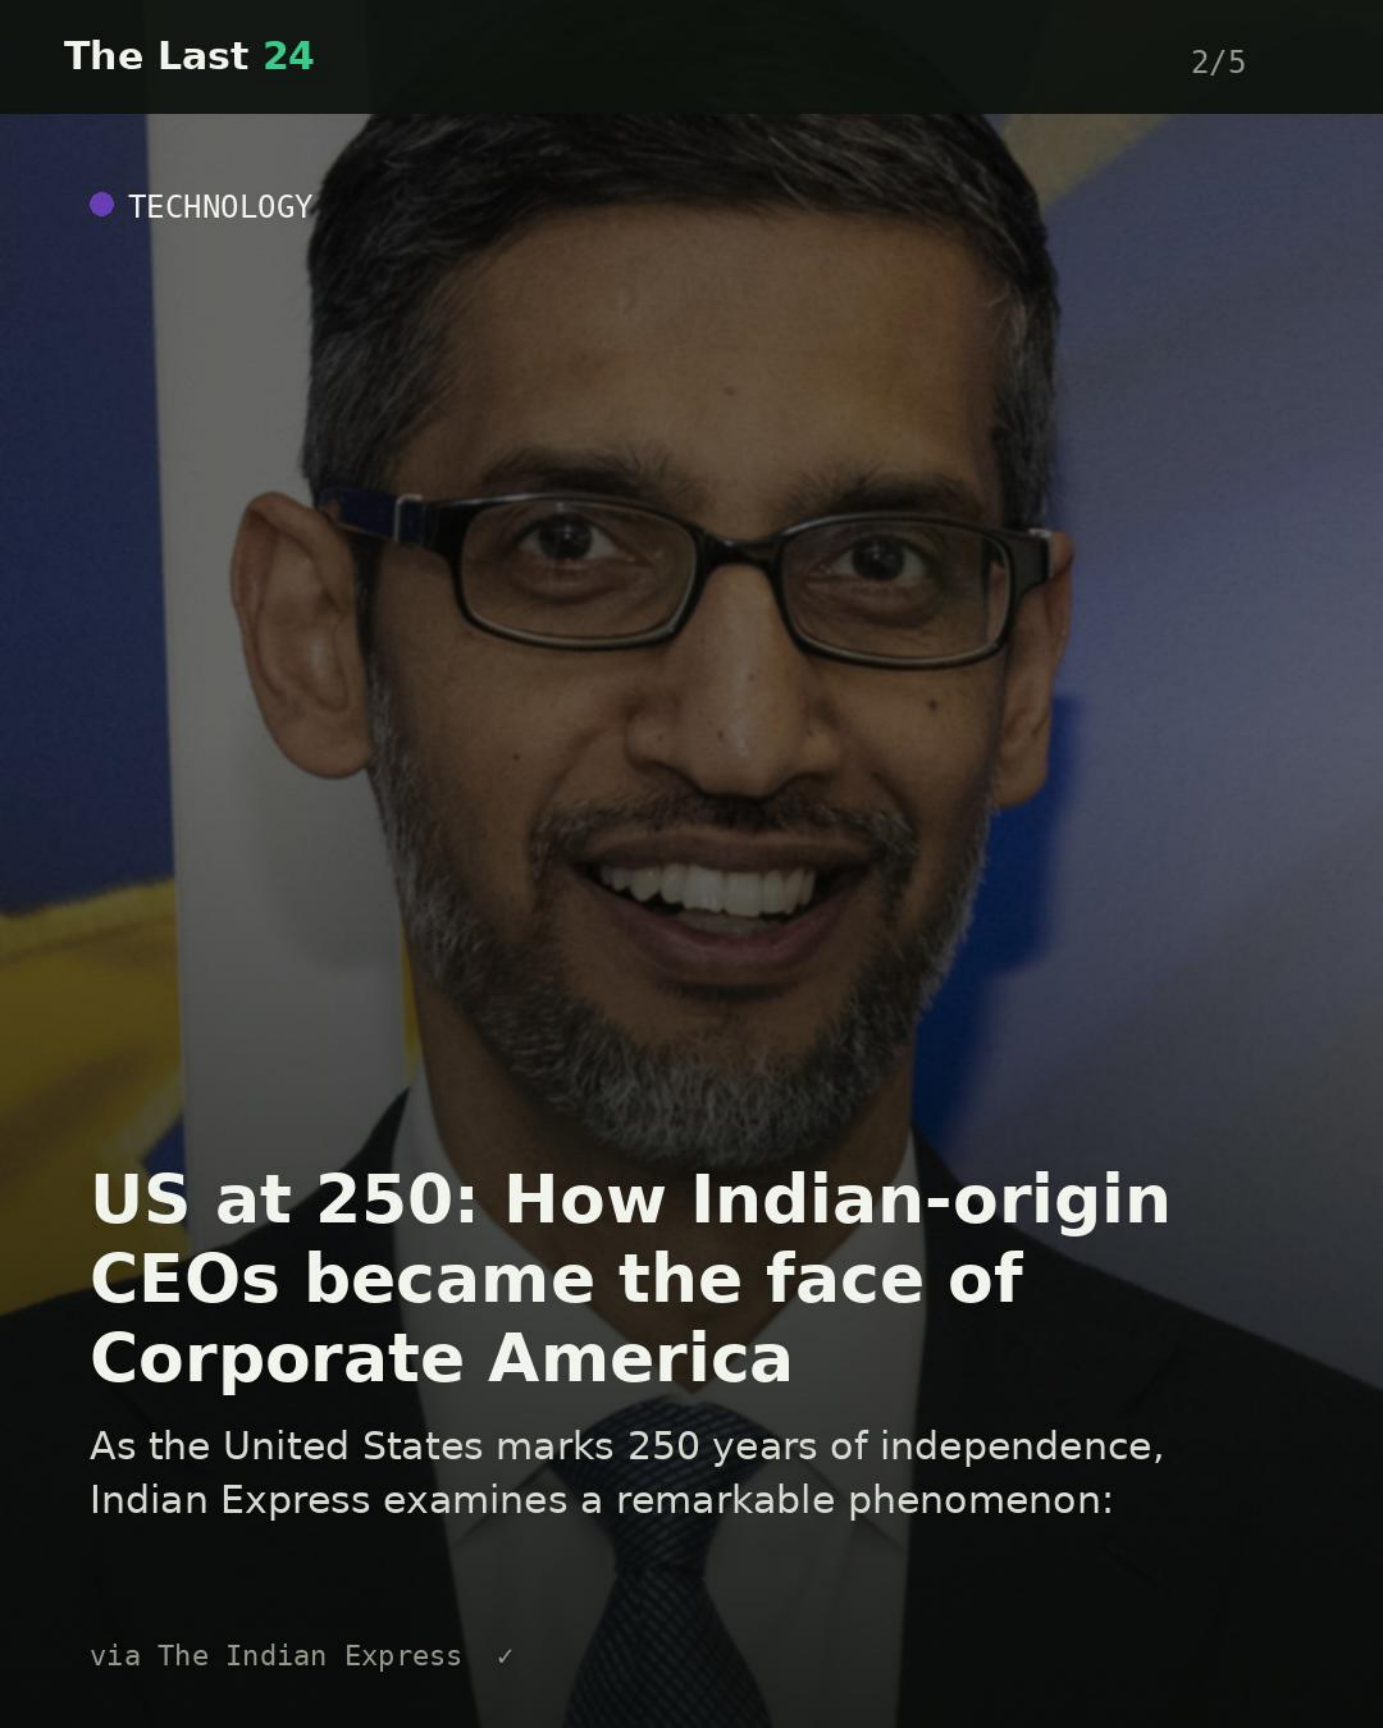

● TECHNOLOGY

Over 35% of AI users expect the technology to handle most of their work within a year, Anthropic finds

A new study by AI company Anthropic reveals that more than 35% of people who use artificial intelligence tools expect AI to

● TECHNOLOGY

A close-up portrait of Sundar Pichai, CEO of Google, smiling and wearing glasses and a suit. The image is darkened to serve as a background for the text.

US at 250: How Indian-origin CEOs became the face of Corporate America

As the United States marks 250 years of independence, Indian Express examines a remarkable phenomenon:

via The Indian Express ✓

● TECHNOLOGY

Government launches TRL Compass Platform to track tech readiness, signs MoU with DSCI

The Office of the Principal Scientific Adviser to the Government of India has launched the TRL Compass Platform,

● TECHNOLOGY

Rs 91,500 crore and 2.45 lakh jobs at risk as India's digital rules squeeze startups

A new report warns that India's restrictive digital regulations could put Rs 91,500 crore in economic value and 2.45 lakh

● TECHNOLOGY

Bengaluru techie earns ₹45 lakh a year but feels broke by month-end — and the internet is divided

A Bengaluru-based technology professional earning ₹45 lakh annually has gone viral after claiming to have nothing left by

The Last 24

The full brief, every day:

thelast24.in

Everything that mattered in India, in five minutes.

